

THE ROSEATE
VILLA

BATH

The Roseate Villa Bath is nestled in the heart of the iconic city of Bath, a city renowned across the world for its heritage and cultural tourism. The Villa oversees the sprawling Henrietta Park, a 7 acre park opened to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria in 1897. The park land was donated by Captain Forrester of 3rd Kings Own Hussars, with the stipulation that it should always remain a green space and never be built on. Henrietta Park is situated within walking distance of the city centre and key attractions like Roman Baths, Bath Abbey, Thermae Bath Spa, The Jane Austen Centre. It is an oasis of tranquillity with places to sit quietly or take a relaxing stroll around the circular walk amongst many fine trees and flora that include the Purple Sycamore, Golden Elms, Caucasion Mapel and a line of Baumannii Horse Chestnuts.

The Roseate Villa Bath encompasses two converted Victorian houses with a distinctive legacy. A hearty warm welcome with tea and homemade cakes awaits all its guests, a legacy upheld by every member of the team who are delighted to sit with you and craft a memorable stay in the city, whether it includes a tour of the Roman Baths, the Regency Crescent or the views of Prior Park, Jane Austen Museum or the grandeur of Bath Abbey. The Roseate Villa Bath exudes a feeling of serenity in and around its estate and offers wholehearted assistance to its guests who are either seeking sightseeing and excursions around the city or are in the mood for a nonchalant weekend getaway.
