

ROSEATE HOTELS & RESORTS DEBUTS KHEER

The Celebration of fine Indian Cuisine

New Delhi, October 09, 2017: Synonymous to finesse and urban elegance, Roseate Hotels & Resorts announces the launch of its most awaited Indian speciality restaurant par excellence – Kheer.

Kheer brings exquisite Indian cuisine teamed with the best street food offering an experience that marries traditional cooking with luxurious fine dining. Nestled on the first floor of the hotel, Kheer is designed by Noriyoshi Muramatsu, Tokyo based renowned designer of Studio Glitt formerly of design house Super Potato who has created all the Zuma interiors globally.

With a seating capacity of over 250 guests, the restaurant is divided into four prominent areas – the live kitchen, the main dining area, the bar and the lounge.

At Kheer, there is something on offer for everyone. The food is served to share; the dishes are steadily brought to the table creating an informal, sophisticated style of eating and drinking with a zing.

While guests immerse themselves in the vibe and colour of the restaurant's rich décor, a team of expert chefs headed by Executive Sous Chef Anuj Wadhawan, present you an extravagant plated menu with a diverse spread of culinary classics and signature dishes followed by delectable desserts curated by Executive Pastry Chef Anand Panwar.

Kheer plans to open in some of the most cosmopolitan cities over the next few years starting with London and Dubai.

"Kheer marks a significant milestone in the fine dining space for gourmands in the capital which will delight every diner's palate. It has always been the brand's endeavour to keep reinventing itself and hope to continue bringing new and exciting gastronomic experiences for our guests globally", said Kush Kapoor, Area General Manager, Roseate Hotels & Resorts.
