

Roseate Hotels & Resorts Presents 'Flavors of Gujarat' at DEL, Roseate House New Delhi

New Delhi, 29th August 2025

Roseate Hotels & Resorts is delighted to present 'Flavors of Gujarat', an exclusive culinary pop-up hosted at DEL, Roseate House New Delhi from 27th to 31st August 2025. The festival will showcase the rich and diverse culinary traditions of Gujarat with a special focus on the vibrant regions of Kutch and Kathiyawad. Guests are invited to embark on a gastronomic journey through authentic Gujarati delicacies, reimagined with a balance of authenticity and innovation.

This unique experience will be curated by Chef Poonam Dedhia, a celebrated culinary expert from Mumbai, renowned for reviving lost recipes while blending them with contemporary flair. Since 2012, Chef Poonam has been championing traditional Indian cuisine, with her expertise lying in the lesser-explored yet deeply flavorful kitchens of Kutch and Kathiyawad. Over the years, she has conducted more than 100 culinary events, hosted large-scale Gujarati food festivals, and worked closely with leading hospitality brands for menu development and food promotions.

Chef Poonam has also made her mark on television, having featured on Zee Marathi's Aamhi Saare Khavvaye and Food Food Channel's cookery competition with Padma Shri MasterChef Sanjeev Kapoor, where she emerged as a Top 6 finalist. Recognized as one of the Top Hospitality Icons (Chefs) by CMO Asia and awarded Best Regional Chef – Gujarati Cuisine 2025 by Better Kitchen, she continues to inspire food lovers with her deep-rooted knowledge, storytelling, and mastery of regional cuisines.

The specially curated menu will feature signature dishes from the Kutch–Kathiyawad region, offering a vibrant mix of flavors—sweet, sour, spicy, and tangy—that define Gujarati cuisine. Expect a wholesome spread that includes rustic regional favorites, innovative reinterpretations, and indulgent desserts, giving guests a true taste of Gujarat.
