

'HENRY I' - AN IMMERSIVE TIME TRAVELLING AND GASTRONOMICAL EXPERIENCE AT THE READING ROOM, THE ROSEATE READING

JUNE 12th, 2023

The Roseate Reading in partnership with Rabble Theatre is thrilled to present an exclusive event, 'Henry I' - An immersive dining experience' at The Reading Room restaurant on 17th & 24th June. Amidst a fine culinary experience, witness the captivating world of Henry I come to life.

Join us at The Reading Room to embark on an exciting journey back in time with the iconic characters of Henry I's era coming to life. The immersive experience blends the artistry of Rabble Theatre's production with an absolutely delightful culinary experience, curated by the expert Chefs at The Reading Room, creating an enchanting fusion of gastronomy and theatrical storytelling.

Guests can enjoy this experience over an exclusive Afternoon Tea, lunch or dinner.

During the Afternoon Tea service, guests can enjoy delightful sweet and savoury treats paired with the finest teas while being transported to a different era through exclusive excerpts from the play. The amalgamation of delectable flavours and captivating performances promises to leave guests enchanted and enthralled.

The exclusive dinner experience will offer guests an opportunity to immerse themselves in the medieval history of Reading while enjoying the decadent cuisine at The Reading Room. Prepared by our award-winning chefs, these culinary delights perfectly complement the unique experience, creating an unforgettable evening that seamlessly blends history, culture and gastronomy.

"At The Roseate Reading, offering bespoke culinary & cultural experiences for our discerning guests is key," says Vicky, General Manager of The Roseate Reading. "We proudly support Rabble Theatre and are thrilled for their extraordinary production of 'Henry I' right at our doorstep in the Abbey Ruins (13th June - 1st July 2023). Join us on the 17th and 24th of June at The Reading Room restaurant for an enchanting, unforgettable dining experience!"
