Roseate House London Triumphs at the 2025 World Luxury Hotel Awards

London, United Kingdom - Roseate House London is delighted to announce its remarkable success at the 2025 World Luxury Hotel Awards, receiving three distinguished accolades that honour its exquisite craftsmanship in hospitality and unwavering commitment to refined living.

Roseate House London has proudly been named:

- Best Luxury Small Hotel in Northern Europe
- Best Luxury Boutique Hotel in the United Kingdom
- Best Luxury Romantic Hotel in Northern Europe

These prestigious awards recognise the hotel's dedication to delivering a sanctuary of understated opulence, curated elegance and a service philosophy rooted in genuine warmth and thoughtful discretion. Set moments from Hyde Park, Roseate House London embodies timeless London heritage, coupled with contemporary sophistication and a personalised, heartfelt approach that has become synonymous with Roseate Hotels & Resorts.

A Celebration of Craft & Heart

This recognition is a testament not only to the beauty of the property, but to the dedication and artistry of the team who serve with sincerity and passion each day. In a world where luxury is often measured in excess, Roseate House London continues to champion a more meaningful definition - one rooted in the intimacy of boutique hospitality, thoughtful gestures, and experiences that feel deeply personal.

Parvez Unmar, General Manager, Roseate House London

This award is a recognition of our teams' passion, dedication and consistent delivery of meaningful luxury experiences, said Parvez Unmar, Regional General Manager at Roseate House London.

I am proud to work with such a talented group of individuals who truly understand that luxury is not about formality, it is about human warmth, attention to detail and creating moments guests remember. My sincere congratulations to the entire team at Roseate House London on this outstanding achievement
